21 February 2017

- Noted correspondence relating to Tasmanian Audit Office probity examination of the use of credit cards.
- Resolved to recommend that Council seek nominations for Councillor panel members to be appointed until end October, 2018 and noted that Independent Panel Chairman Mr. Ben Coull is prepared to nominate for a term of four year
- Received a briefing from the General Manager on the Embedding Shared Resources Project
- Received a briefing from the Corporate Services Managers of the Councils regarding a common procurement policy for the two councils
- Reviewed the Audit Panel Charter and agreed that for continuity it would be beneficial to have terms staged for Panel members. The Panel further agreed that the Chairman's appointment should be for four years with maximum consecutive service of two terms. For succession planning purposes it was considered expiry of the Chairman's term should not coincide with the appointment of new Councillor Panel members. Agreed that the Charter should also allow for flexibility for re-appointment should no other nominations be received. Current panel members indicated their willingness to continue their terms until the next election in October, 2018 to align with Councillor terms.
- Recommended that Tasmanian Audit Office be requested to make a joint presentation to Latrobe and Kentish Councils on Related Party Disclosures complying with AASB 124
